AUDIT DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE OF THE IRBA CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

Johannesburg / 18 March 2024

The IRBA hereby calls for applications for membership to the Audit Development Committee (ADCOM), a subcommittee of the Education, Training and Professional Development Committee (EDCOM). ADCOM is responsible for all aspects relating to the registration, monitoring and assessment of the Audit Development Programme (ADP).

Applicants are required to have skills and experience, particularly a good working knowledge of the competencies required from a Registered Auditor (RA), and these include technical and non-technical competencies as set out in the competency framework.

The required skills and experience include:

- A qualified Chartered Accountant (SAICA and/or ACCA) and being an RA would be advantageous.
- Extensive practical audit experience at a senior management level; and/or
- Extensive audit experience in academia at a senior management level.
- Experience in the ACCA academic programme and/or
- Experience in the ACCA training programme.

Eligible persons are invited to submit their applications by email (detailed CV, copy of highest qualification and completed application form which can be downloaded from the IRBA website at advertisement and committee application/nomination form) to
