INFORMATION FROM SARS

Johannesburg / 8 March 2022

Dear Tax Practitioner

Please refer to the attached document from SARS providing an overview of what's new at SARS.

In addition to the above, SARS acknowledged that it has received complaints from a number of Tax Practitioners on allegations of them not being contacted on outstanding matters (this includes our SR team trying to rectify profile matters escalated to them). To this end, SARS has noted that Practitioners being contacted from their (010) number may view these calls as "spam calls" and requests Practitioners to recognise these calls as urgent SARS calls.

Please note that this information comes directly from SARS and is shared by the IRBA in its capacity as a Recognised Controlling Body.

For any enquiries, please contact SARS directly.
