

Invitation: SARS Filing Season Educational Webinar

Dear Taxpayer,

The South African Revenue Service will host a webinar on Education for Process to make it easier for taxpayers to meet their tax obligations and, in this way, be tax compliance. The platform will provide an opportunity for SARS to introduce and demonstrate a number of technological tools that were recently designed to assist taxpayers to, at leisure, navigate our enhanced systems.

The Education for Process webinar is part of a series that have been developed to enable taxpayers to do things right when they submit their tax returns. Importantly, these webinars are an essential part of a program to implement SARS Strategic Objective 1 and 2, that is, to provide clarity and certainty of taxpayer obligation, and to make it easy and simpler to comply.

As our valued taxpayers, you are invited to join in these webinars and to extend the invite to relevant stakeholders that will benefit from this exercise.

The details of the first event are as follows:
