

THE INDEPENDENT REGULATORY BOARD FOR AUDITORS [IRBA]

STANDARD OPERATOR AGREEMENT/ ADDENDUM

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 The Protection of Personal Information Act, 4 of 2013 (POPIA) is a data protection privacy law which as its main function and objective, regulates the processing of Personal Information by a Responsible Party.
- 1.2 IRBA in its capacity as a Responsible Party, for the purposes of carrying out its legislative mandate and related objectives, does and will from time to time, process Personal Information belonging to a number of persons, including legal entities and individuals, who are referred to as Data Subjects under the Data Processing Laws, including POPIA.
- 1.3 IRBA, is obligated to comply with the Data Processing Laws, including POPIA and the Data Protection conditions housed under POPIA with respect to the processing of all and any Personal Information pertaining to all and any Data Subjects.
- 1.4 In order for IRBA to pursue its mandate and its related operational and business interests, IRBA may from time to time ask third parties to process certain Personal Information on its behalf, which Personal Information it has obtained from its Data Subjects.
- 1.5 In relation to the processing of Personal Information belonging to Data Subjects in South Africa, in terms of section 20 of POPIA, if IRBA discloses Personal Information which it has collected from Data Subjects to another for the purpose of processing or further processing such Personal Information on its behalf, hereinafter referred to as "the Operator" then any such processing must be subject to a written agreement concluded between IRBA as the Responsible Party, and the Operator, which contractually obliges the Operator to:
- 1.5.1 comply with the provisions of POPIA and the POPIA processing conditions when processing such Personal Information on behalf of IRBA;
- 1.5.2 only process the Personal Information received from IRBA in accordance with the mandate or written instruction received from IRBA;
- 1.5.3 keep all the Personal Information held by the Operator on behalf of IRBA and/or belonging to the IRBA Data Subjects, confidential;
- 1.5.4 put measures in place in order to keep all such Personal Information held by the Operator, and processed on behalf of IRBA confidential, safe and secure from misuse, abuse and/or unauthorised use or access.
- 1.6 IRBA is desirous of providing the Operator with certain Personal Information, which IRBA would like the Operator to process on its behalf, and the Operator has agreed to process the Personal Information on behalf of IRBA which processing will be subject to the terms and conditions set out under this Operator Agreement.

2. DEFINITIONS

2.5 No agreement varying, adding to, deleting from or consensually cancelling this Agreement / Addendum, and no waiver of any right under this Agreement / Addendum, shall be effective unless reduced to writing and signed by or on behalf of the Parties.

3. MANDATE TO PROCESS

IRBA hereby grants to the Operator a mandate to process certain Personal Information on its behalf.

4. OBLIGATIONS OF THE OPERATOR

- 4.1 The Operator expressly warrants and undertakes that it will:
- 4.1.1 process the Personal Information strictly in accordance with its mandate and any specific instructions provided to it by IRBA from time to time;
- 4.1.2 not use the Personal Information for any other purpose, save for the purpose of processing the Personal Information as per Agreement / Addendum;
- 4.1.3 treat the Personal Information as confidential and only disclose, transfer and/or hand over the Personal Information to those person(s) who are employed by it, and who need to process the Personal Information in accordance with the mandate to process as an Operator and/or in terms of the Agreement / Addendum under strict undertakings of confidentiality;
- 4.1.4 in addition to the provisions of clause 4.1.3, treat the Personal Information as confidential and only disclose, transfer and/or hand over the Personal Information to third parties where under any specific instructions as issued by IRBA in writing from time to time or where required by law and only once it has provided IRBA with adequate warning of this requirement to disclose and the related details thereof, including the identity of the person who is to receive the Personal Information, the reason for the disclosure and confirmation that the person to whom the Personal Information is to be disclosed to, has signed the POPIA onwards transmission notice attached hereto marked Annexure "A";
- 4.1.5 ensure that it has and will continue to have in place, appropriate technical and organizational measures to protect and safeguard the Personal Information against accidental or unlawful destruction or accidental loss, alteration, unauthorised disclosure or access, including Industry Best Practices, which provide a level of security appropriate to the risk represented by the processing and the nature of the Personal Information to be protected and which safeguards comply with the requirements set out under POPIA, and in addition, which measures are in line with the requirements described under the attached Company Security Service Level Requirements, marked Annexure "B";
- 4.1.6 process the Personal Information strictly in accordance with POPIA and the POPIA processing conditions;

- 4.1.7 not use the Personal Information for any direct marketing or advertising, research or statistical purposes, unless expressly authorised to do as per its mandate and when conducting such activity ensure that this is done strictly in compliance with the requirements of POPIA and its regulations especially those applicable to direct marketing detailed under section 69;
- 4.1.8 not treat the Personal Information as its own, it expressly acknowledging that it has been tasked with processing the Personal Information in its capacity as IRBA's Operator and agent, and that ownership of all the records housing the Personal Information and any records comprising such Personal Information pertaining to the Data Subject, will always remain with IRBA;
- 4.1.9 not sell, alienate or otherwise part with the Personal Information or any of the records housing the Personal Information;
- 4.1.10 where it is allowed to make use of a sub-operator, as per its mandate or in terms of the Agreement / Addendum, ensure that such party concludes a "sub-operator agreement" with it and IRBA which compels the third party receiving the Personal Information to respect and maintain the confidentiality and security of the Personal Information, which sub-operator agreement will house the same terms and conditions as contained in this Agreement / Addendum, and which shall be concluded before the Personal Information is transferred to the sub-operator.
- 4.1.11 ensure that any person acting under the authority of the Operator, including any employee or sub-operator, shall be obligated to process the Personal Information only on instructions from the Operator and strictly in accordance with this Agreement / Addendum, and in particular the Sub-operator Agreement, where applicable.
- 4.1.12 notify IRBA immediately where it has reasonable grounds to believe that the Personal Information, which has been provided to it, including any Personal Information, which it has processed and which pertains to the Agreement, has been lost, destroyed, or accessed or acquired by any unauthorised person and in such event, immediately make available to IRBA the details of the Personal Information Breach; comply with all instructions and directions given by IRBA; take all measures necessary to determine the scope of the compromise and to restore the integrity of the Personal Information so compromised, including where applicable its or IRBA's infrastructure; and importantly provide all information to any notifications which may be made by IRBA to any regulator, Data Subjects, or any other person; and co-operate fully with IRBA in relation to any investigations that IRBA or any regulator, may initiate or which may be initiated by an investigator or other authority.
- 4.1.13 provide to IRBA, and where applicable and with permission from IRBA, provide to any investigators and regulators or authorities, with all assistance and cooperation requested in relation to any requests or complaints received from any person or entity, including requests for the deletion, updating or correction of Personal Information which it is processing on behalf of IRBA.
- 4.1.14 provide, on request, all information, data and materials required by IRBA to confirm its compliance with its obligations in this Agreement / Addendum. The information shall be provided at no additional cost where provided in an electronic format only. The information shall be provided to IRBA promptly and in any event within 5 (five) business days of the request, provided that if IRBA or the Operator as the case may be, is unable to provide or receive the information within this period, then such information will be provided within a period as agreed as between the parties, but in all events as soon as is practically possible.

- 4.1.15 comply with all reasonable directions and instructions which may be given by IRBA regarding the processing of Personal Information in terms of the Agreement / Addendum. It is further agreed that any directions or instructions which are required for purposes of ensuring compliance with any applicable laws, including Data Protection Legislation, shall be deeded reasonable.
- 4.2 The Operator warrants that it has the legal authority to give the above-mentioned warranties and fulfil the undertakings set out in this Agreement / Addendum.
- 4.3 IRBA in order to ascertain compliance with the warranties and undertakings housed under this Agreement / Addendum, will have the right, on reasonable notice and during regular business hours, to view and/or audit, either by itself or through an independent agent, the Operator's facilities, files, and any other data processing documentation needed for the required review, audit and/or independent or impartial inspection and the Operator undertakes to provide all necessary assistance which may be needed to give effect to this right.

5. LIABILITY OF THE OPERATOR AND THIRD-PARTY RIGHTS

- 5.1 In the event of the Operator, the sub-operator or their respective employees or agents breaching any of the warranties and undertakings housed under this Agreement / Addendum or the sub-operator agreement where applicable, or failing to comply with any of the provisions of POPIA and/or the 8 = Information Processing Principles, , then in such an event, the Operator shall be liable for all and any damages it or the sub-operator may have caused in consequence of said breach or non-compliance, including patrimonial, non-patrimonial and punitive damages suffered by IRBA and/or the Data Subject(s) and the Operator indemnifies and holds IRBA including its directors, employees and all and any affected Data Subjects harmless against any such loss, damage, action or claim which may be brought by whomsoever against IRBA or any of its directors , employees, or Data Subjects, or against any of IRBA's affiliated companies, or their directors or employees, and agrees to pay all and any such amounts on demand.
- 5.3 At the request of IRBA, the Operator will provide IRBA with evidence of financial resources sufficient to fulfil its responsibilities set out under the Agreement, and the Operator Agreement, which may include insurance coverage.

6. APPLICABLE LAW

The laws of South Africa shall apply to this Agreement / Addendum, regardless of where the Personal Information is, will be, or was actually processed.

7. TERMINATION

- 7.1 In the event of:
- 7.1.1 any other agreements, as between the Parties and to which these terms apply, being terminated for whatsoever reason;
- 7.1.2 the transfer of Personal Information to the Operator being temporarily suspended by IRBA for longer than one month, for whatever reason;
- 7.1.3 the Operator being in breach of its obligations under the Agreement or the Addendum, as the case may be, or has failed to comply with POPIA or the 8 Information Processing Principles, and has failed when called upon to do so by IRBA, to rectify the breach or area of non-compliance;
- 7.1.4 the Operator is in substantial or persistent breach of any warranties or undertakings given by it under the Agreement or the Addendum, as the case may be, notwithstanding that IRBA has not given the Operator notice of such breach;
- 7.1.5 the sub-operator is in breach of the sub-operator agreement;
- 7.1.5 an application is filed for the placing of the Operator under business rescue, under administration, or winding up whether interim or final, which application is not dismissed within the applicable period for such dismissal under applicable law; or any equivalent event in any jurisdiction occurs, then IRBA without prejudice to any other rights which it may have against the Operator, shall be entitled to terminate the Agreement or the Addendum, as the case may be, as well as where applicable, the sub-operator agreement.

- 7.2 The Parties agree that the termination of the Agreement or the Addendum, as the case may be, at any time, and/or the sub-operator agreement, where applicable, in any circumstances and for whatever reason, does not exempt them from the rights and obligations set out under this the Agreement or the Addendum, as the case may be, with regards to the processing of the Personal Information, read together with the obligations under POPIA.
- 7.3 In the event of the Agreement or the Addendum, being terminated whenever, and for whatsoever reason, the Operator undertakes to:
- 7.3.1 restore and/or transfer back to IRBA all and any Personal Information which has been provided to the Operator for processing, including that held by the suboperator, whether same has been processed or not, and/or which has been processed, together with any related documentation and/or information, all of which documentation must without exception, be returned to IRBA within a period of 30 (thirty) days from date of service of the termination notice.
- 7.3.2 to confirm in writing simultaneously when the transfer under clause 7.3.1 takes place, that all such Personal Information will be kept confidential as per the provisions of clause 4.1 and that it will not under any circumstances use the aforementioned information for whatsoever reason.

7.4 Notwithstanding termination of the Agreement or the Addendum, as the case may be, and for whatsoever reason, the clauses 4, 5, 6 and 7.2 will survive any such termination.

8. GENERAL

- 8.1 The parties may not modify the provisions of the Agreement or the Addendum, as the case may be, including any annexures, unless such variation is reduced to writing and signed by the Parties.
- 8.2 The Agreement / Addendum, as the case may be, save where the contrary is stated, will be subject to and governed by the terms set out under the Agreement / Addendum. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the terms of the Agreement / Addendum and the other agreements which may be in place to which this Agreement / Addendum being read with, then the terms and conditions in so far as the processing of the Personal Information is concerned, as set out under the Agreement / Addendum will take precedence and govern its interpretation, application and construction.

TECHNICAL AND ORGANIZATIONAL MEASURES FOR DATA PROCESSING TO BE IMPLEMENTED BY THE OPERATOR

1. Physical Access Control

Safeguarding admission / access to processing systems with which processing is carried out against unauthorized parties (e.g. through physical property protection: fence, gatekeeper, personnel barrier, turnstile, door with card reader, camera surveillance, organizational property security, regulation on access authorizations, access registration).

The following technical and organizational measures have been implemented by the Operator for the processing of Personal Information described in this Agreement / Addendum:

- □ Alarm system
- □ Automatic access control system
- □ Locking system with code lock
- □ Biometric access barriers
- □ Light barriers/motion sensors
- □ Manual locking system including key regulation (key book, key issue)
- □ Visitor logging
- □ Careful selection of security staff
- □ Chip cards/transponder locking systems
- □ Video monitoring of access doors
- □ Safety locks
- □ Personnel screening by gatekeeper/reception
- □ Careful selection of cleaning staff
- □ Obligation to wear employee/guest ID cards

2. Data Access Control / User Control

Prevention of third parties using automatic processing systems with equipment for data transmission (authentication with user and password).

Authentication with user name/password (passwords assigned based on the valid password regulations)
Usage of intrusion detection systems
Usage of anti-virus software
Usage of a software firewall
Creation of user profiles
Assignment of user profiles to IT systems
Usage of VPN technology
Encryption of mobile data storage media
Encryption of data storage media in laptops
Usage of central smartphone administration software (e.g. for the external erasure of data)

3. Data Usage Control / Data Storage Media Control / Memory Control

Prevention of unauthorized reading, copying, changing or erasure of data storage media (data storage media control). Prevention of unauthorized entry of Personal Information and unauthorized access to it, changing and deleting saved Personal Information (memory control).

Ensuring that the parties authorized to use an automated processing system only have access to the Personal Information appropriate for their access authorization (e.g. through authorization concepts, passwords, regulations for leaving IRBA and for moving employees to other departments) (data usage control).

Roles and authorizations based on a "need to know principle"
Number of administrators reduced to only the "essentials"
Logging of access to applications, in particular the entry, change and erasure of data
Physical erasure of data storage media before reuse
Use of shredders or service providers
Administration of rights by defined system administrators
Password guidelines, incl. password length and changing passwords
Secure storage of data storage media
Proper destruction of data storage media (DIN 66399)
Logging of destruction

4. Transfer Control/Transportation Control

Ensuring that the confidentiality and integrity of data is protected during the transfer of Personal Information and the transportation of data storage media (e.g. through powerful encryption of data transmissions, closed envelopes used in mailings, encrypted saving on data storage media).

Establishment of dedicated lines or VPN tunnels
Encrypted data transmission on the Internet (such as HTTPS, SFTP, etc.)
E-mail encryption
Documentation of the recipients of data and time frames of planned transmission or agreed erasure deadlines
In case of physical transportation: careful selection of transportation personnel and vehicles
Transmission of data in an anonymized or pseudonymized form
In case of physical transportation: secure containers/packaging

5. Entry Control / Transmission Control

Ensuring that it is possible to subsequently review and establish which Personal Information has been entered or changed at what time and by whom in automated processing systems, for instance through logging (entry control).

Depending on the system, ensuring that it is possible to review and determine to which offices/locations Personal Information has been transmitted or provided using equipment for data transmission, or to which offices/locations it could be transmitted (transmission control).

Logging of the entry, change and erasure of data
Traceability of the entry, change and erasure of data through unique user names (not user groups)
Assignment of rights for the entry, change and erasure of data based on an authorization concept
Creating an overview showing which data can be entered, changed and deleted with which applications
Maintaining forms from which data is taken over in automated processing

6. Availability Control / Restoration / Reliability / Data Integrity

Ensuring that systems used can be restored in case of a disruption (restorability).

Ensuring that all system functions are available and that any malfunctions are reported (reliability).

Ensuring that saved Personal Information cannot be damaged through system malfunctions (data integrity).

Ensuring that Personal Information is protected from accidental destruction or loss (availability control), e.g. by implementing appropriate back-up and disaster recovery concepts.

Uninterruptible Power Supply (UPS)
Devices for monitoring temperature and moisture in server rooms
Fire and smoke detector systems
Alarms for unauthorized access to server rooms
Tests of data restorability
Storing data back-ups in a separate and secure location
In flood areas the server is located above the possible flood level
Air conditioning units in server rooms
Protected outlet strips in server rooms
Fire extinguishers in server rooms
Creating a back-up and recovery concept
Creating an emergency plan

7. Separation Control / Separability

Ensuring that data processed for different purposes can be processed separately (for instance through logical separation of customer data, specialized access controls (authorization concept), separating testing and production data).

Physically separated storing on separate systems or data storage media
Including purpose attributions/data fields in data sets
Establishing database rights
Logical Client separation (software-based)
For pseudonymized data: separation of mapping file and storage on a separate, secured IT system
Separation of production and testing systems

8. List of Sub-Operators

If sub-processors are hired (for instance for hosting, providing computing centre space, operating software used to process Personal Information, etc.) for the processing of Personal Information the implementation of technical and organizational measures by the respective sub-Operator must be regulated through appropriate contract data processing agreements.

The following sub-operators have been contracted:
