

---

INDEPENDENT REGULATORY BOARD FOR AUDITORS

---

New appointments at the IRBA

Johannesburg /03 October 2019

The Independent Regulatory Board for Auditors (IRBA) has recently made two new appointments to its senior executive team.

Rebecca Motsepe has been appointed as Director: Legal to head the team responsible for coordinating the register of auditors, disciplinary processes against auditors in breach of the Code of Professional Conduct and standards, as well as the provision of general legal support to the IRBA. Rebecca is an admitted attorney with over 10 years litigation and commercial law experience. She joins the IRBA from the Commission for Conciliation Mediation and Arbitration (CCMA) where she was the Executive Head of the Legal Services department responsible for the development and implementation of litigation, contracts, research and enforcement strategies. Rebecca holds a Bachelor of Law degree, a Master's degree in Corporate Law, a post graduate Diploma in Contracts, as well as qualifications in the Law of Banking and Financial Markets and Compliance Management. Rebecca joined IRBA during September 2019.

Nadine Kater has been appointed as Director: Education and Transformation to lead the team responsible for the management of the Audit Development Programme, monitoring of SAICA, accreditation, Continuous Professional Development and assessment of proficiency of prospective Registered Auditors for admission to the IRBA register. Nadine joins the IRBA from SAICA where she was the Senior Executive responsible for the Accounting Technician AT(SA) qualification. With over 30 years of experience promoting skills development in the accounting profession in the education and training arena, Nadine can draw on her previous roles as Head of the ACCA South Africa, as Chief Operating Officer and, prior to her role as COO, as Director: Learnerships ETQA at FASSET, the Seta for Finance, Accounting, Management Consulting and other Financial Services. Nadine has a B Comm (Accounting and Business Management), an HED in Accounting, Economics, Business Economics, Pedagogics and an MBA. Nadine joined IRBA during September 2019.

The IRBA is pleased to strengthen its management team with two such qualified and experienced professionals.

Bernard Peter Agulhas
Chief Executive Officer

About the IRBA

The objective of the IRBA is to endeavour to protect the financial interests of the South African public and international investors in South Africa through the effective and appropriate regulation of audits conducted by Registered Auditors, in accordance with internationally recognised standards and processes.