

Request for Nominees to Serve on the Legal Practitioner's Fidelity Fund Board in terms of Section 61 of the Legal Practice Act 28 of 2014 (as amended)

Johannesburg / 16 October 2023

In terms of section 62(1)(b) of the Legal Practice Act, 28 of 2014 (Act), the Legal Practitioner's Fidelity Fund (LPFF) Board, must consist of who members designated by the Legal Practice Council (Council) by virtue of their qualifications, expertise and experience in the field of finance and whose names have been submitted by the IRBA.

Pursuant to the above legislative obligation, the IRBA received a request from the Council to identify six Registered Auditors, from which two will be appointed by the Council to sit on the LPFF Board.

In the premise, the IRBA invites Registered Auditors who have an interest in being nominated to serve on the LPFF Board to submit their up-to-date CV, with current contact details to the IRBA for consideration.

Registered Auditors can access more information about the Council at <https://lpc.org.za/> and the LPFF at <https://www.fidfund.co.za/>

CVs must be submitted by close of business on Friday, 20 October 2023 to cgarbutt@irba.co.za.

Registered Auditors whose names have been selected for submission to the Council, will be informed accordingly. However, we advise that such nominations do not guarantee appointment and that appointments are subject to the Council's appointment process.

For any enquiries, please contact Caroline Garbutt at cgarbutt@irba.co.za

Caroline Garbutt

Manager: Registrations

About the IRBA

The objective of the IRBA is to endeavour to protect the financial interests of the South African public and international investors in South Africa through the effective and appropriate regulation of audits conducted by registered auditors, in accordance with internationally recognised standards and processes.

POPIA Notice

Kindly take notice that, in order to consider any nomination to serve on the LPFF Board, we will have to process your personal information.

The Protection of Personal Information Act, 4 of 2013 (POPIA) provides that when one processes another's personal information, such collection, retention, dissemination and use of that person's personal information must be done in a lawful and transparent manner.

In order to give effect to the above right, the IRBA is under a duty to provide you with various details pertaining to the processing of any nominees or their representative's personal information. These details are housed under the Processing Notice for Auditors and Professional Bodies, which can be accessed and viewed on the

IRBA website: <https://www.irba.co.za/library/popi-act> which Processing Notice for Auditors and Professional Bodies we request you kindly download and read prior to responding to this request for nomination.