INFORMATION FROM SARS

Johannesburg / 19 July 2022

Dear Tax Practitioner

INVITATION TO EFILING PRESENTATION FOR THE FILING SEASON

Please refer to the attached invitation to an eFiling presentation for the filing season.

Please note that should the number of attendees exceed the Microsoft Teams capacity; SARS will arrange additional sessions.

SARS TAX PRACTITIONER READINESS PROGRAMME

Should you wish to attend SARS Tax Practitioner Readiness Programme session, please register by 22 July 2022, to enable SARS to timeously send out meeting links to the registered individuals.

For ease of reference, herewith the registration link Tax Practitioner Readiness Webinars Registration Portal

INDUSTRIAL ACTION

As you are aware, SARS staff have embarked on industrial action. This will impact certain of SARS services, specifically the Practitioner Contact Centre which remains unavailable.

SARS reminds practitioners that most of the services are available on the digital platforms.

Official communication is provided regularly for updates on any SARS branches or border posts that may be closed through the following link: Latest on the SARS Industrial action impact | South African Revenue Service

ONBOARDING OF TRADERS TO RLA SYSTEM

Please refer to the attached communique from SARS providing an update on the onboarding of traders on the new Registration, Licensing and Accreditation (RLA) System
