Johannesburg /26 November 2020

The IRBA's Annual Report for the 2019/2020 financial year was recently tabled in Parliament and is now available.

During the year under review, the IRBA undertook a number of projects that included the following:

- Launched the first South African Feedback Report on Audit Quality Indicators which provides a set of quality measures that audit firms reported on to the regulator.
- Issued the 2019 Inspections Report, covering the first year of the Seventh Inspections Cycle.
- Implemented the new Continuing Professional Development Policy, which became effective in January 2020.
- Obtained a clean audit report for the 10th consecutive year, making the IRBA one of the few entities with such a track record.

This latest Annual Report also marked the end of term for the Board and the Chief Executive Officer, and that is highlighted in their respective messages.
